

Home & Legacy Landlord’s Rent and Legal Protection – Policy Summary

This is a policy summary only and does not contain the full terms and conditions of the contract. It does not form part of the contract between you and us. Full terms can be found in the policy wording, a copy of which is available on request. If you take out a policy with us you will receive a full policy wording as part of your policy documents.

How long does the cover last?

The policy lasts for 12 months or if different, for the period shown on your schedule.

What type of cover is provided?

Home and Legacy’s Landlord’s Rent and Legal Protection insurance is designed for private individuals who are letting their main home and individuals or businesses that own and let one or more investment properties on a residential basis under a written tenancy agreement.

The insurance provides cover for loss of rent if your tenant(s) fail to pay it to you when it is due (but not for the first month of non payment).

It also covers the legal costs and expenses that could arise in the event of disputes with tenants and to defend any legal action taken by tenants alleging that you have failed to meet your obligations under the terms of the tenancy agreement - as long as the minimum amount in dispute is at least £250.

The insurance additionally provides you with access to a 24 hour legal helpline service to obtain professional advice on any legal personal matter or tenancy related matters (but not in regard to any legal disputes with your letting/managing agent) – refer to the LawCare section which is on page 5 in the policy wording.

The key information about the insurance is set out below. This includes the most significant or unusual exclusions and limitations to the cover and where to find them in the full policy wording. There may be other exclusions or limitations that are significant to you so it is important that you read the full policy wording. A copy is available from your insurance intermediary, or us, on request.

What happens if I take out cover and then change my mind?

The policy provides you with a 14 day reflection period, either from the day of purchase of the contract or the day on which you receive your policy documentation whichever is the later, to decide whether you wish to continue for the agreed period of insurance. If you chose to cancel the policy within the reflection period you will be entitled to a refund of the premium you have paid unless you have made a claim. If you have made a claim the amount of refund will be calculated proportionately for the time for which you have been covered based on the annual premium payable,

Cancelling cover after the initial period of reflection

If you cancel your insurance after the first 14 days, provided you have not made a claim, you will be entitled to a proportionate refund of the premium paid subject to the deduction of a £15 administration fee and any Insurance Premium Tax where this is applicable. Full details can be found on page 3 in the policy wording.
